Isn't it time you received equity in return for your sponsorship dollars, with an added profit potential?

REBEL ANGEL is the ideal outlet to connect your product or service with the youth market.

The Award-Winning multi-media group, Jungle Cinema, is creating a unique new film that enables you to participate as a marketing partner. The film provides numerous ways to position your brand as the hottest new product or service that a young demographic would want to use or own. Product placement, Sampling, Point-of sale, category exclusivity, full promotional rights, tie-in programs and national and international advertising are just some of the benefits you can receive.

REBEL ANGEL will provide you with high visibility and create the perfect hook for increasing consumer sales, adding incentive for retailers and enhancing corporate image with the youth market.

Content is now in production with tie-in partners in mind. The creative team can fashion the look of the film to meet your marketing objectives.

YOUR PRIMARY BENEFITS INCLUDE:

- First position for return of initial investment
- Participation and profits derived from video game based on the film
- Share in the profits from sales or licensing of the short film
- Possible product placement in the Film
- Company logo included in all marketing materials promoting the film
- First option to participate in the feature film production of THE REBEL ANGEL
